

Event Outreach Officer (Interns)

(Intern, London-based 5 hrs a week, 4 months)

URGENT - JOB OPPORTUNITY AT ZUBEDA WELCOME

Are you passionate about improving people's lives and have a keen interest in working in the charity sector? Do you like meeting new people and love building new connections? Want to use your talent to help the Ummah?

About The Internship Role

We are looking for someone to join us as our new Event Outreach Officer to attend community events all year round.

This will be an exciting and rewarding internship, giving you valuable experience across key areas within a UK based charity.

You will be joining us at an inspiring time as we are now a registered charity in the UK. We are at the stage of solidifying our work processes and procedures that will strengthen the organization's future, to a more resilient one.

You will receive mentorship as part of this internship. You will be matched with an individual with experience in the charity sector to guide you with your career moving forward.

Summary of role:

As an Event Outreach intern you are an integral part of helping expand and nurture our existing community network. You will be building relationships with our key partners which are Madrasas and other Islamic educational institutions.

Your main role is to spread awareness about Zubeda Welcome's efforts and services .

You will assist by:

- Research upcoming events that will be relevant to ZW outreach strategy and add them to our shared drive document "Community Outreach Events".
- Create a calendar of events (see the "Community Outreach Events" Tracker) and keep track of themes throughout the year, Ramadan, Eid, Dhul Hijjah, Refugee Week etc
- Attend and networking at other charity and organization events, creating opportunities to collaborate in identifying refugees and fundraising for madrasa fees
- Research and collaborate with UK charities that already support UK refugees and asylum seekers build relationships with them.

- Hold stalls at relevant bazaars, fairs, expos, Halal, and Muslim events etc to raise awareness to the public

All this work will help us immensely by increasing awareness and refugee sign-ups, creating free and discounted places at madrasa and increasing funds for fees and operational resources

The ideal candidate will:

- Be excited to gain hands-on experience in the UK charity sector
- Have great communication skills; both written and verbal
- Sharing updates on shared drive via Google Workspace
- Weekly 15 mins debrief with CEO via Google Meet
- Able to meet new people and start conversations
- Be sensitive and empathetic
- Be proactive and able to use initiative and prioritize his/her work
- Be confident to speak with new people, organizations and businesses
- Able to react quickly and flexibly in order to adapt to a fast-paced role and take advantage of new opportunities
- Committed to learning
- Able to travel to the field if required (car and driver's license an asset)

- Flexible working
- Reliable
- DBS certificate

If you believe you would add value to Zubeda Welcome but don't meet all the criteria above, we would still love to hear from you.

About Zubeda Welcome

Now in our 5th year of serving refugee children, for the first time as a registered charity, our focus turns to the madrasa needs of all refugees across the UK as well as the asylum seekers who are housed temporarily in a given location as they await their fate.

Zubeda Welcome is committed to meet the Islamic education needs of all the refugees and asylum seekers across the UK, but won't achieve this alone. We will need the support of many other charities, donors, funders and refugee support groups across the nation to connect the dots and make this happen! Visit our website for more information zubedawelcome.org

What We Can Offer You

- A flexible approach to working arrangements.
- Mentoring program - you will be paired with a mentor that has experience in the charity sector, they can provide guidance on your career moving forward
